Reflection for Easter Sunday

We know that Christ has truly risen from the dead. Yes, indeed! This is the fundamental core of our profession of faith; this is the cry of victory that unites us all today. And if Jesus is risen, and is therefore alive, who will ever be able to separate us from him? Who will ever be able to deprive us of the love of him who has conquered hatred and overcome death? The Easter proclamation spreads throughout the world with the joyful song of the Alleluia. Let us sing it with our lips, and let us sing it above all with our hearts and our lives, with a manner of life that is 'unleavened', that is to say, simple, humble, and fruitful in good works. The Risen One goes before us and he accompanies us along the paths of the world. He is our hope, He is the true peace of the world.

Cafod Intercession for Easter Sunday

We pray for everyone in our global family who is affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, for those in our own parish, and for those who live in countries where healthcare is limited and poverty brings enormous challenges. May God grant us all the gift of an open-hearted, generous and compassionate response to those in need. Lord, in your mercy.

Right to Life Prayer for the week

As we celebrate the ultimate victory Christ won for us on the cross, we pray for victory in all the church's efforts. We pray especially for the church's battle to protect all life and the dignity and wellbeing of all human beings from conception to their natural passing. Lord hear us.

Pray without ceasing for our common home

This year major international decisions will be made that will affect, for good or bad, our global future. The UN climate summit in Glasgow in November is vital in securing progress in combatting climate change and is the subject of a nationwide call to prayer that the right decisions are made. In collaboration with Christian Aid, Tearfund and other faith agencies, CAFOD invites you to pray from now until November for the success of the climate summit. More details at : cafod.org.uk/Prayer-without-ceasing

Prayer for the Glasgow Summit

Creator God, we cry out to you. The earth is damaged and in chaos, people in poverty are suffering the most, greed and consumerism are a disease and your Church is too often asleep.

Merciful Lord, protect your people and restore your earth, embolden governments to take action, awaken Church leaders, give the youth influence and guide businesses to change.

In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord may we unite and be bold, take heart and find hope in you, worship you with our lifestyles, walk in your truth and see justice and renewal in the earth.

Amen
